AN INDEPENDENT POSTOFFICE FOR GLENDAL

Decision of Postmaster General Burleson—Order to Take Effect January 1, 1917—
Congressman Charles H. Randall Notified—Read Facsimile Telegram

PLACES GLENDAL ON THE MAP

Three Years At Work

More than three years ago the editor of The Glendale Evening News placed before the people of Glendale the importance of an independent postoffice in the community. A petition was circulated which received more than 1100 signers asking Postmaster-General Burleson to grant the request. The question was unfairly referred back to the Los Angeles postoffice officials who must have recommended that there was no need of Glendale having an independent postoffice because at that time no heed was given to this petition signed by so many Glendale people.

When Charles H. Randall became congressman two years ago the question of securing an independent postoffice for Glendale, South Pasadena and Alhambra was put up to him by the newspapers and active citizens of these cities and Mr. Randall has been quietly at work with the postoffice department showing reasons why these cities should have independent offices until Tuesday of this week when he received the accompanying telegram which explains itself.

Randall Talks

In discussing the matter today, in Glendale, Congressman Randall said: "I am pleased to announce to the people of Glendale that they are to have a first-class independent postoffice. After a year's struggle with postal officials in Washington, who are wedded to the consolidation of postoffices everywhere with the county seat, an exception is to be made for the progressive cities of Glendale, South Pasadena and Alhambra.

"The following telegram was received from Postmaster General Burleson on Tuesday:

"Hon. Charles H. Randall, Member of Congress:

"Referring to your letter October 17, order will be issued effective January 1, 1917, establishing independent presidential postoffices at Glendale, South Pasadena and Alhambra with all necessary postal facilities."

"This simply means that the postal service of these cities will be placed on an independent and therefore a superior basis. A postmaster will be appointed at each city whose ambition will be to serve the interests of his particular community. Long distance administration of local government has never been a success. The element of local pride and concentrated effort will give far better results in postal affairs as it does in every other business, public or private. No matter what may be the ability of postal officials in Los Angeles, they can have no particular interest in the local ambitions of these cities, which have been subordinated to the big city. The congested conditions in the Los Angeles office, requiring all the energy and ingenuity of its officials to keep the mails moving, results in a certain amount of neglect of the outside stations.

"Hereafter, carrier service in the independent cities will not be subordinated to the necessities of the larger city, but will be conducted for the sole benefit of the local postal service.

"It is my purpose to introduce at once in congress bills for suitable federal buildings in Glendale, South Pasadena and Alhambra, to correspond with the high class of public buildings which these cities have already built through their remarkable public spirit.

"It has been untruthfully stated that carrier's salaries will be reduced under the new arrangement. Not so. The last session of congress passed an act prohibiting the reduction of salaries of carriers who have reached the $1200 grade, and ordered all salaries of carriers restored which had been reduced in Los Angeles and other cities."

Some Advantages

The advantages of Glendale having a postoffice independent from Los Angeles are numerous.

First, it will be possible for the patrons of the postoffice to come in personal contact with the postmaster and thereby their just complaints will receive prompt and deserving attention whereas it has been possible to communicate only with assistants who had no power to act.

With an independent postoffice it will be possible to secure a federal postoffice building for Glendale such as Pasadena, Long Beach and other cities now have.

The mail service from distant points will be better as under the new plan it will not be necessary to have Glendale mail worked over in Los Angeles and thus often delayed.

An independent postoffice for Glendale is the means of giving the city additional publicity and after January 1 Glendale will appear in postoffice guides and directories as a principal postoffice and not as a branch.

The rural mail routes leading from Glendale to country points will be known as Glendale rural routes instead of Los Angeles routes.

A postoffice conducted under a regularly appointed postmaster will be capable of giving much better service at the office. Instead of only one window being open to give service to many people there will be two or more as in his judgment will be necessary for the accommodation of the patrons.

The Glad News

This glad news will be received with great pleasure by all Glendale people who are anxious to see the city take an advance step in progress while only a few who are closely allied with the city of Los Angeles' interests may put forth claims that the service will not be improved. It is well known by those who have given the matter thoughtful study that the business of the postoffice can be handled much better by a postmaster in Glendale than by the heads of departments in the Los Angeles postoffice. Congressman Randall's ability to know the needs of cities such as Glendale, South Pasadena and Alhambra has made it possible for him to bring pressure to bear upon the postoffice authorities to grant the request. That Congressman Randall should receive much credit for his diligence in getting independent postoffices for these cities must be conceded by every fair-minded citizen.

IN LOWER CALIFORNIA

GLENDAL VISITORS TO MEXICAN AND TIA JUANA FIND MARTIAL LAW AND GAMING

Mexico is as safe as any part of California, as long as one does not go very far into the country and confines his attention to the border of Lower California. According to the accounts given by recent visitors to that much-vaunted country, Lower California is more anxious to take the money of the American than his life. One is held up all the same but it is easier to part with some superfluous cash than to cash in altogether.

F. W. Sanford of the Glendale Hardware store motored down to Tia Juana with a merry party consisting of Mrs. George F. Latter, Miss Doris Latter and Miss Margaret Lusby and Harold Latter. Saturday, returning Tuesday morning. They found the roads between here and San Diego in good shape and quite a deal of travel as many people realize that their chances of seeing the fine Canadian and other foreign exhibits at the San Diego fair are becoming very few. The exposition will close on the last day of December and after that the opportunity of seeing many of the best features of the fair will be gone.

"Apart from the visitors San Diego seemed dull," said F. W. Sanford. "We motored down to Tia Juana to observe for ourselves conditions on the border. If any of us expected anything wonderful that person was disappointed. The garrison is there of course, but Governor Cantu has been wise enough to play a lone hand in the great revolution and by keeping a strong force in his Lower California cities and letting it be understood that he is acting solely in the interests of that state has managed to keep out of the war up till now.

"That is not to say that Lower California is pusillanimously hiding behind its natural boundaries. By no means. The soldiers of Baja, Cal. are ready to defend their territory and as there is nothing to be made out of a campaign there both Villa and Carranza have kept their hands off. In this policy there has been great wisdom. Lower California is fairly prosperous.

"We were amazed to see the interest taken by the natives and visitors in the Tia Juana fair. This institution is in grounds of its own and does a wonderful business considering (Continued on Page 4)

BUREAU OF EDUCATION COMMENDS GLENDAL MUTUAL BENEFIT CIRCLE

At the regular weekly meeting of the Mutual Benefit Circle yesterday there was an attendance of twenty-five women. Three guests were present: Mrs. G. J. Jannaris of New York, Mrs. E. F. Knight of Glendale and Miss Beresford Joy of Los Angeles.

A letter from the Bureau of Education at Washington, D. C., written to Mrs. Toll, was read to the circle. The secretary of the bureau announced in this letter that the bureau will shortly send out throughout the United States a pamphlet on reading courses, a portion of which will be devoted to the work of the Mutual Benefit circle of Glendale, which is considered by the bureau to have carried out the work in an ideal manner, and to have attained results that are accounted eminently good.

A series of more than one hundred questions on the book last completed "The Dawn of Character" had been passed around for study at the last meeting. These were brought by the members to the circle yesterday. About half of them were read and answered yesterday. The replies showed that the members had digested the contents of the book thoroughly, and were gratifying to the leader. The review will be continued next week. This will not consume all of the time; but the new book, "Studies in Child Development," by Julia Clark Hallam, will be begun at that time.

The circle planned to enter into the true spirit of the rapidly approaching holiday season, by doing a little something to alleviate the distress of a family in need of physical comforts. The members will come prepared next time with whatever they may give. Women's garments of No. 36 bust measure, and those of a babe from a year to eighteen months, as well as cash, will be acceptable.

The circle is again indebted to one of its members, Mrs. A. M. Beamon, for tickets to attend the beautiful presentation of "Romeo and Juliet" at the Symphony theater in Los Angeles. As this is a wonderfully fine film, the members are delighted to accept Mrs. Beamon's hospitality.

FRENCH AND SERVANS DEFEAT BULGARIANS

ALLIES ADVANCE IN DIRECTION OF MONASTIR AFTER SEVERELY PUNISHING TEUTON ARMY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
PARIS, Oct. 25.—The French and Servans making a combined forward movement in the direction of Monastir caught the German-Austro-Bulgar forces as they were preparing to retreat and inflicted heavy losses on them. The Servans advancing along the heights smashed into the Bulgar forces and drove them in a confused mass to seek the shelter of the advanced trenches which they have been preparing outside of Monastir. The Servans are anxious to retake Monastir which is one of their holy cities.

ROUMANIANS BLOW UP CZERNAVODA BRIDGE

FOURTEEN MILE RAILWAY VIADUCT OVER DANUBE AND MARSHES IS DESTROYED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LONDON, Oct. 26.—Before evacuating Czernavoda the Roumanians blew up various sections of the famous fourteen-mile bridge across the Danube and the marshes at that point. This action was taken to hinder the operations of the German troops. The bridge was the only span across the Danube between Belgrade and the sea. The Germans captured an immense quantity of supplies and valuable ammunition in the stores at Czernavoda.

GERMANS DRIVEN OFF VERDUN PLATEAU

FRENCH CONSOLIDATE ALL POSITIONS WON BY THEM AND CONCENTRATE FIRE ON FORT VAUX

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
PARIS, Oct. 25.—Notwithstanding desperate attempts on the part of the Germans to clear the front at Douaumont and Damour they failed and the troops of General Nivelle consolidated their positions won from the Teutons. The Germans are now confining themselves to bombarding the French positions. The French fire is concentrated on Fort Vaux from three sides and it is likely that that position will be retaken very shortly.

P. E. O. MEETING—LAUNDRY DRIVER MUST PAY LICENSE

Chapter L of P. E. O. met at the home of Mrs. Bartlett of 101 South Brand Boulevard at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon. As it was "Mother's Day" in the chapter, each member took either her own or some other mother as her guest.

The program was opened by roll call and was responded to by the different members on some little incident in life. A piano selection "Humoresque" by Dvorak was given by Mrs. Ann P. Bartlett. This was followed by a series of tableaux representing different motherhoods.

First came the beautiful young mother represented by Mrs. Hunchberger. Second, was later motherhood given by Mrs. May Emery with a group of small children and a reading by Mrs. Pirtle. Third, the Spartan mother and her soldier son given by Mrs. Lyda M. Border and Master Roger Owens, little Roger being dressed as a soldier boy and saluting the flag.

Last but by no means least, was the original sketch given by Mrs. Josephine Bryant as the suffragette mother. Her modesty of demeanor and dress was all that could be desired in the up-to-date club woman and her article was a marvel both in words and ideas.

She was charming in her make up of grey hair, jewels, lorgnette and high coloring and well represented the woman of the day.

After the program light refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed by those present.

LAUNDRIES MUST PAY LICENSE

In Judge Whomes' court this morning M. W. Moss, a laundryman who gathers laundry in Glendale for the Crown laundry of Los Angeles, was tried on a charge of operating in Glendale without a license from the city. Moss when challenged and arrested refused to pay the license and demanded a trial. The case was fully gone into before Judge Whomes who found Moss guilty and sentenced him to pay a fine of $25 or go to prison twenty-five days. Moss took an appeal from this sentence to the superior court. He was defended by Attorney George H. Moore and Attorney Charles L. Evans. The case for the city was presented by City Attorney W. E. Evans.

PLANS IN FULL SWING FOR BIG DEMOCRATIC RALLY FRIDAY

Inter-class basketball is off. The Sophomores today are bragging about their victory over the Freshmen Tuesday afternoon. At no time did the Scrubs have a chance to win the game, although they put up a plucky fight. It was an amusing sight to see big Don Wieman and diminutive Grey Bennett scrambling for the ball.

Because of the big Wilson parade which is to take place tomorrow the Junior-Senior game is scheduled for today. This game is of vital interest to both the upper classes since upon its result may depend the Faries cup. The captains of both teams express confidence of victory.

As the result of the Sophomore debating tryouts held Tuesday in the science lecture hall the following team will represent that class in debating this year: Mervia Scott, David Johnston, James McCluskey and Chauncey Kolts. This meeting which was presided over by William Gower was held behind closed doors. The judges were Joseph Maier, '16; Miss E. Eggert, German instructor and W. Darwin Root, debating coach.

Mr. Joy's geography class from the commercial department made a visit Tuesday to the forge and machine shops of the school to get an insight of the practical side of the steel industry of which the class has been studying. Because of the importance of the steel industry the details are gone into quite thoroughly by the class. Civilization owes a great deal to iron and correlated industries. Upon it are based all structural improvements.

Mr. Richardson, the amiable shop instructor, led the geography class in its visit through the shop, pointing out every phase of the work. A large class of boys was busy at the forges forming steel bars into many different shapes. It was interesting to notice the ease with which each boy handled his work. There is no question about the practicability of the course offered to these young men by Glendale High school.

The different tools in use in tempering steel, the construction of the forge, the power hammer, the stock room, etc., were of extreme interest (Continued on Page 4)

PROGRESS OF THE WAR

Without doubt the most striking feature of the war this week is the sensational campaign conducted by the German generals, Von Falkenhayn and Von Mackensen, before whose rapid advance the Russo-Bulgarian force is in constant retreat. The long battle line in the Dobrudja shows that the Germans, Bulgarians and Turks are pressing the Russians and Roumanians at all points.

The Roumanians are excellent fighters but they seem to have been thrown into the fight without adequate preparation in the way of artillery or ammunition. The Germans with a foe so weak have accomplished a great deal. What will stand them most instead, however, at this juncture is their seizure of the important port of

DEATH OF KAENSHI NAGAOSA

Kaenshi Nagaosa, wife of George Nagaosa, formerly known as George Okayama of 851 West Second street, died yesterday at the Burbank hospital at the age of twenty years. George Okayama sent to Japan two years ago for the girl who became his bride and when they married he took his wife's name as she was the last of her family. George has lived in Glendale for a dozen years or more and is known as a worthy and industrious citizen. Funeral services for Mrs. Nagaosa will be held at Buddha Temple, Turner street, Los Angeles, Friday afternoon.

INTENTION AND EXECUTION

Right and wrong apply not to individuals but to their acts, and all the world agrees that a man does right when he puts forth the best that is in him. Therein lies the distinction between intention and execution.

DEMOCRATS, DO YOUR BEST

An enthusiastic Hughes supporter suggests that the High school Wilson club make the very best possible demonstration in Friday's parade, for when it comes Republican day, there will really be something doing. The latent Hughes enthusiasm will come to the surface on this occasion and those who had participated in the Wilson parade will look back to it being a tame affair. The Abe Lincoln and McKinley spirit of patriotism will be revived and the Hughes supporters will "go marching on."

FIND VIGILANTES' BELL

One of the last reminders of the timber days at Truckee, Cal., was uncovered a few days ago when workmen demolishing one of the old Truckee Lumber company's sawmills uncovered a bell used by the vigilantes. It was used to summon the vigilantes when the leaders felt the necessity of taking the law in their own hands and exercising the prerogatives of Judge Lynch. Truckee is among the oldest towns of the state and just as it was prominent in the historic days when the Sierras' slopes gave up their gold, so it is prominent now as a summer and winter resort city. Its fishing and hunting and nearness to Lake Tahoe make it the mecca of sportsmen and pleasure seekers during the summer months and its winter carnival, which begins about Christmas time, attracts thousands during the snow period. Preparations are already under way for the season of winter sports this year. There will be skiing, tobogganing, the ice carnival and the sleighrides to historic Lake Donner again this year, and the interest created by the city rinks in skating is expected to add greatly to the number of Truckee visitors.

handling a group of German generals like those who have been leading the Roumanians and Russians in Transylvania and the Dobrudja is like full-grown men handling a company of school children. The Bulgarians stiffened by the Germans are putting up a fine fight against such troops as the Roumanians; against the French, British and Servians, the Teutons, on the other hand are by no means at an advantage.

The Turks by themselves would never have made anything like a stand against the troops sent against them in this war; but with German officers they are as good as the Germans themselves. Thus it is easy to see that the Roumanians made a mistake in underrating their opponents and unless they manage to make a very quick shift in the position of affairs they stand a fair chance of being handled as Servia was handled.

On the western front the pounding away at the German positions around Bapaume and Peronne goes on and the Kaiser's forces were forced to retire from the north of Chaulnes, south of the Somme, to a position already prepared there. The third winter of the war is about to close down on the troops in the field and will undoubtedly stop the fighting on the east front, while the British and French on the west front may continue their attacks on the German positions despite the weather.

FOR CLEAN ROADS

Autoists and picnic parties made a target of legislation Monday at Redwood City when the board of supervisors of San Mateo county passed an ordinance which makes it a misdemeanor to deposit papers, lunch boxes, cans, bottles or any rubbish or garbage upon the public highways. Violation of the ordinance is made punishable by a maximum fine of $250 and sixty days imprisonment in the county jail. The recent Santa Cruz forest fires are said to have been caused by campers burning waste paper. The serious damage to auto tires caused by broken glass and bottles on the highway was considered by the supervisors.

Oh, the broom, the yellow broom,
The ancient poet sung it,
And dear it is on summer days
To lie at rest among it.

I know the realms where people say
The flowers have not their fellow;
I know where they shine out like suns
The crimson and the yellow. . . .

But ne'er was flower so fair as this
In modern days or olden;
It groweth on its nodding stem
Like to a garland golden.

And all about my mother's door
Shine out its glittering bushes,
And down the glen, where clear as light
The mountain water gushes.

Take all the rest; but give me this,
And the bird that nestles in it;
I love it, for it loves the broom—
The green and yellow linnet. . . .

Yes, the Cost of Living Is Going Up

But You Need Not Buy Inferior Goods in Order to Save

Meats, Eggs and Most Canned Vegetables are high and rapidly rising in price—However, you can fix nutritious, appetizing dishes for little cost. For instance here is a suggestive dinner for six people, including bread and butter, which would cost only 50 to 55 cents:

Potato soup
Baked Macaroni with Cheese
3-4 cup macaroni, broken in pieces; 2 qts. boiling water; 1 tablespoon salt; 2 tablespoons flour; 2 tablespoons butter; 1-2 cup grated cheese; 1 1-2 cup scalded milk; 1-4 cup buttered bread crumbs.
Cook the macaroni in the boiling water for twenty minutes; drain and blanch with cold water. Make a white sauce of the butter, flour and milk. Add seasoning to the sauce. Arrange a layer of cooked macaroni in the bottom of a buttered baking dish; sprinkle with the grated cheese, repeat until all the macaroni and cheese are used; pour over the white sauce, cover the top with buttered crumbs and bake for twenty minutes in a hot oven, or long enough to give the top a nice brown.

Extra fine large potatoes, a superior quality, cream cheese and the best brands macaroni and coffees may always be had at this store.

SARDINES

We get the word "sardine" from Sardinia, but we get few sardines, for practically all of the "catch" is consumed locally. The tunny fisheries on the island, on the other hand are important and profitable. The Genoese control the latter industry, for the Sardinians are not a maritime folk.—Geographic Magazine.

ing the pitiful lack of prosperity in Mexico. Even then Mexicans told me that Lower California was a paradise compared to a state like Chihuahua where the different factions had so harried the people that they had little or nothing left.

"On the border, at Mexicali and Calexico, while the American city is fairly prosperous the Mexican city is given over to gambling and drink. A visitor who had been at Mexicali told me that it looked as though the inhabitants there consisted of the exploiters and exploited and that the peon seemed to be exploited out and to have nothing, owing even for the rags on his back.

"In Tia Juana it was much the same. The average able-bodied man is thankful to get into the army that he may eat a little bread. Tia Juana has rebuilt its race track destroyed by last season's floods. Gambling goes on as usual and the visitors seem to take a delight in contributing to the fortunes of the owners of roulette wheels. We left thankful that we live in the United States and in a clean city like Glendale."

HOW MUCH DUST IN AIR

A scientist is using an ingenious new method of ascertaining just how much dust and smoke the atmosphere contains. A ribbon or filter paper is stretched over a small slit in the side of a hollow brass cylinder, and the air is passed through the paper by exhausting the interior of the cylinder. After a half hour's exposure the ribbon is automatically moved on and a fresh surface exposed.

A traveler in Indiana noticed that a farmer was having trouble with his horse. It would start, go slowly for a short distance, and then stop again. Finally the traveler approached and asked, solicitously:

"Is your horse sick?"

"Not that I know of."

"Is he balky?"

"No. But he is so danged 'traid I'll say whoa and he won't hear me, that he stops every once in a while to listen."

chief is day by day gaining over men of substance in Chihuahua province and elsewhere who are disgusted with the hapless and fruitless rule of Carranza. The latest accession to the Villa ranks is the Legalista party, which is giving its whole strength to the successful commander. It is reported that the Villistas drove the Carranzistas before them like sheep at the battle of Palomas. Trevino is shut up in Chihuahua City, with very little ammunition and Carranza is virtually the prisoner of General Obregon. Trevino is said to favor Villa.

MACKENSEN'S ATTACK BEGINS TO WEAKEN

GERMAN COMMANDER FINDS DIFFICULTIES IN THE DOBRUDJA AS HE ADVANCES

PETROGRAD, Oct. 26.—German accounts of the progress of the fighting in the Dobrudja are exaggerated. The Russo-Roumanian army is still battling strenuously against the German advance and the Germano-Turkish, Bulagrian-Austrian offensive is visibly weakening. It is hoped that the advent of the winter will shiek it altogether and give the hard pressed Russians and Roumanians time to recuperate.

VATICAN DENIES INTERFERENCE FOR PEACE

POPE'S OFFICIALS SAY THERE HAS BEEN NO ATTEMPT TO RECONCILE RUSSIA AND AUSTRIA (Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

ROME, Oct. 26.—The Vatican denies that there have been any attempts on its part to induce Russia to conclude a separate peace with Austria. The pope and his council are not anxious to meddle with the course of the war, in any other way than by the prayers of the church and its constant influence for agreement between the Christian nations. The Vatican takes no sides in the war having faithful members in all the warring lands.

to every one of the boys and girls of the class.

The party was then taken to the lecture room of the mechanical arts building where many views were shown them by the lantern picturing the steel industry from the mine to the finished product. Each member of the class was required to prepare a thesis on the industry. Mr. Joy said today "that geography class is a hummer."

A meeting of all the Seniors was called yesterday at the fourth period. Mr. Howe said that unprincipled mischief was reported to have "loaded" the punch at former class functions and warned the Seniors to maintain vigilance over the punch bowl at the Halloween hop. A resolution covering the case was unanimously passed by the class.

A. L. Ferguson, class teacher made a short talk about the relation of the Senior class to the student body. Representatives of the Senior class to the school legislature were elected as follows: Jeanette McClellan, Ed Seay and Sam Durand.

An announcement on the bulletin board Wednesday announced the postponement of the G. O. P. meeting. The president, Mr. Scheuner, announced that his club wanted to have plenty of enthusiasm for a big rally before another meeting was called.

The Wilson club met at noon to hear the report of the parade committee. Kenneth Beldin outlined the progress that had been made and the plans for the future. Sub-committees to take charge of the different divisions were appointed.

The committee in charge of the eight hour law division is Arthur R. Oliver, chairman; Elmer Richardson, William Gower and Sam Durand. This division will be composed of railroad employees. All boys with overalls are asked to bring them and line up on Louise street.

The committee which will superintend the float with "Columbia" surrounded by all the nations is: Miss Ella Wall, Miss Enid Fenton, Dan Hagin, Elwood Ingledue and Frank Balthis.

The girls who will represent the Peace sentiment are being recruited by the following committee: Florence Heacock, Katherine Coates, Aileen Freeman, Esther Schremp, Catherine Phillips and Leone Bryce. Miss Heacock asks that every girl who desires to help the cause wear a middie and white skirt Friday to enter in this division.

Howard McGillis, Carleton West and Roberto Rosa are working on banners for the parade.

Attention is called to students who are going to drive their machines in the demonstration that they should bring them to school in the morning as the parade will start promptly on time.

FIVE PIANOS SOLD IN TWO DAYS OF SALE

The Salzer Piano company of 1112 West Broadway is having the most successful sale of pianos and player-pianos ever held in Glendale, five pianos being sold on Tuesday and Wednesday, first two days of the sale. The Salzer Piano company is a real Glendale store, and was started in this city over six months ago. There are over twenty pianos and player-pianos on display, all at real sale prices. In addition to pianos the Salzer store carries Grafonolas and Columbia records.

CAR CHARIOT OF GOLD

CARRIES A FORTUNE DAILY THROUGH THE CITY STREETS

The armored cars now being used in the war zone have a near relative in the new Maxwell touring car recently purchased by the Hellman banks of Los Angeles, for the transference of funds between this bank and other banks and treasuries.

This new Maxwell is fitted with a holster for a 45 Colt's in each rear door, a case for sawed-off shot gun in the back of the front seat and a steel plate bottom a quarter of an inch thick. The car is to be used in carrying cash—gold, silver, paper—from bank to bank during the clearing hour and for transferring large sums of money from the county and city offices to the bank's big vault.

In speaking of the new Maxwell yesterday Irving H. Hellman, vice president of the bank said. "It takes an unusually sturdy car to hold up under the almost unreasonable demands we make on the automobile which carries money for us. I have seen a large and expensive car of undoubted excellent construction with its frame resting flat upon the springs under the heavy load of gold and silver it is sometimes necessary for us to move. It is not our desire to use a truck for this purpose, and in our search for a pleasure car strong enough to carry this enormous load and small enough to get around in the downtown traffic, we decided upon the Maxwell, with the new rear spring construction installed recently in all Maxwell cars. As an added precaution against the great weight of money we had a steel bottom placed in the tonneau."

There are approximately sixteen silver dollars to the pound avoirdupois, or a weight of sixty-two and a half pounds per 1000. Gold weighs per thousand about three and three-fourths pounds. "Our daily cash transfers," said Mr. Hellman, "are seldom less than $100,000 and sometimes reach over $400,000. A very large portion, possibly seven-tenths, of this is in gold and silver. Take a very ordinary transfer of silver at $50,000. This weighs fifty times sixty-two and one-half pounds or 3,125 pounds—more than a ton and a half. This is silver alone. Add to this the weight of a goodly sum of gold and the weight of four able-bodied men (for never less than four men go with the car, two being armed officers) and you will have an idea of the service we demand from an automobile. In the Maxwell we have found a car which is, in my opinion, truly wonderful in the sturdiness of its construction. Our men find it easy to handle in the city traffic, under perfect control at all times and altogether the very car for our purposes."

DOLLADINE

This is her picture—Dolladine—The beautifullest doll that ever was seen!

Oh, what nosebags! Oh, what sashes! Oh, what beautiful eyes and lashes! Oh, what a precious, perfect pet! On each instep a pink rosette; Little blue shoes for little blue tots; Elegant ribbons in bows and knots.

Her hair is powdered; her arms are straight, Only feel, she is quite a weight! Her legs are limp, though—stand up, miss!

What a beautiful buttoned-up mouth to kiss!

DR. RUSSELL IN NEW MEXICO

From a recent communication to Glendale friends it is learned that Dr. Jessie A. Russell will probably arrive home next Sunday. She has just completed a two weeks' tour, speaking in all of the principal cities of New Mexico, sometimes making as many as five addresses per day. She reports great enthusiasm and bright prospects for a Republican victory November 7.

Dr. Russell recently attended the International Irrigation Congress at El Paso, Tex., being appointed a delegate by Mayor Woodman of Los Angeles. While there she addressed six large mass meetings, the largest being under the auspices of the El Paso Equal Franchise league. She also attended the elaborate reception tendered the delegates by Richard M. Burges, president of the Irrigation congress, at his beautiful home "Sunset Heights."

This week Dr. Russell is scheduled to speak in Las Vegas, Raton and Gallup, the last mentioned being her final address before the election.
